Subject: Letter of reference for Erik Espuñes Juberó

Dear reader,

We can confirm that Erik Espuñes Juberó was employed by Xebia Nederland B.V. from 1st of June 2025 until 1st of January 2027 in the position of Software Consultant, under a permanent employment contract.

I am pleased to recommend Erik, who worked at Xebia as a Software Consultant from June 2025 to now. As People & Ops Lead of the Software Technology Service Line, I worked with him directly during this period and saw his contribution across client engagements and internal projects.

Erik is a capable and dependable software engineer. He brings solid expertise and applies it with care for quality and maintainability.

Just as valuable is the way he works with others. He is a genuine team player who shares knowledge, supports his colleagues and helps keep the atmosphere constructive and friendly. With business stakeholders he has always been cooperative and collaborative, taking the time to understand their needs and turning them into workable technical solutions.

I am confident that Erik will be successful and thrive in technical teams and organizations where he can put his expertise as a software engineer to full use. I warmly recommend him to any future employer.

Should you require any additional information, please feel free to contact the People Department via people@xebia.com.

Kind regards,
Xebia Nederland B.V.
